TRUSTEE REPORT: Fred

- Student with unique needs are offered swimming lessons
- Majority of school fees are maintained for 2025-2026
- Fred went to indigenous gathering, states it was heartwarming and worthwhile
- 7 students got 100% on diploma exams, and were honoured at the May 1 meeting.
- Government modules approval fell short, asked for 27, they got 5. Hopeful they can fund some moves for modules.

SCHOOL UPDATE: Terry L

- Active living is underway, it's going well
- Spirit day beach day coming up
- Volunteer tea on June 11.
- The first official bus is coming next year. We have to be tied to bus time, which means they have to be on early or late start, and the school decided to go with an early start, for next year we are starting school at 8:10, with a dismissal time 2:45 from Monday-Thursday. Friday's start at 8:10 and 1 pm dismissal..
- Current projections for next year - 5 kinder classes, 6 grade 1 classes, 5 grade 2 classes, 5 grade 3 classes, 5 grade 4 classes, 4 grade 5 classes, 4 grade 6 classes, and a 5/6 combined class.

- Not sure who is taking over for Terry yet.
- A parent survey opened May 12, open till June 6, it is anonymous, and the school will get info when it closes.
- Kinder orientation next wed May 21 6-7. We will find out this Friday May 16, if kinder students are in am and pm for September.
- Ashley has purchased dare to care program, wondering what the execution is for how we want to roll that out as Ashley has a password. Today we decided to release it to the school council for now to review it and have it roll out for all parents and students in September.

Budget update: Jenn D

- Balance today -764.00. Healthy hunger money is still coming in.

Fundraising update: Karen R

- $550 was made for growing smiles,
- Meat fundraiser will come out this Friday, till June 3 and come in for pick up June 16. This is the last fundraiser this year.
- Spring dance June 5. Charge $5 per family.
- Do we want hot dogs and chips for the festival of knights day? We will table that for the June meeting to determine how many funds we have.

Other Questions: None

Next meeting June 11 at 6:30.

Meeting adjourned at 7:00 pm.
